

Data and Health Summer School

1st edition

24th – 28th June 2019

Faculty of Health – Department of Medicine

Provisional program

Saturday 22nd June

Welcoming of all participants at the train station, escort to the student residence

Monday 24th June

Welcome coffee and distribution of the welcome packs

Presentation of the School

Stéphane Tirard & Vincent Procaccio, scientific coordinators

Opening ceremony introduced by the President of the University of Angers

Plenary conference

Welcome barbecue

Big data and medical diagnosis

Maël Lemoine, University of Bordeaux (FR)

Visit of Angers

Tuesday 25th June

Data and Health: an interdisciplinary topic

Stéphane Tirard, University of Nantes (FR)

From basic research to the patient

Vincent Procaccio, University of Angers (FR)

Kayak session

Wednesday 26th June

Big data and health: legal issues

Sonia Desmoulin-Canselier & Margo Bernelin, University of Nantes (FR)

Data, health and ethical issues

Bryn Williams-Jones, University of Montréal (CA)

Guillaume Durand & Manon Guillet, University of Nantes (FR)

Summer schools games

Thursday 27th June

Visit of "Nantes Health Research Institute"

Patricia Lemarchand, University of Nantes (FR)

Visit of the city center of Nantes

Friday 28th June

Big data and the patient

Mauro Turrini & Adeline Perrot, University of Nantes (FR)

Conclusion

Stéphane Tirard & Vincent Procaccio, scientific coordinators

Closing ceremony

Saturday 29th June

Atlantic seacoast day with all the participants

The night between Saturday and Sunday (in Angers) is included in the fees.

Sunday 30th June

Departure of the participants