

Vascular Summer School

3rd edition

2 – 6 July 2018

Faculty of Health – Department of Medicine

Provisional program

Sunday 1st July

Welcoming of all participants at the train station, escort to the student residence

Monday 2nd July

Welcome coffee and distribution of the welcome packs

Presentation of the Summer School
--

Opening ceremony introduced by the President of the University of Angers

Plenary conference: The dark side of the genome: The driving force of evolution?

Etienne Bucher, INRA Angers

Welcome barbecue

Free time for shopping

Visit of Angers aboard the little tourist train
--

Tuesday 3rd July

The neurovascular unit: a key for regulation of cerebral blood flow,
Ferenc Bari, University of Szeged (HU)

Exercise diagnostic testing in Peripheral artery disease,
Pierre Abraham, University of Angers (FR)

Vascular response and septic shock,
Peter Radermacher, University of ULM (DE)

The Diabetic Foot
Kevin Cassar, University of Malta (MLA)

Kayak session

Wednesday 4th July

Mitochondrial disease in PAD,
Anne Lejay, University of Strasbourg (FR)

Mechanotransduction,
Laurent Loufrani, University of Angers (FR)

Cardiovascular deconditioning,
Ronan Murphy, University of Dublin City (IR)

Summer schools challenge

Thursday 5th July

Exercise and vascular disease,
Garry TEW, University of Northumbria (UK)

Integrative treatment of venolymphatic treatment,
Knut Kroeger, Clinic head Krefeld (DE)

Research on Stroke prevention in Primary Care,
Grace Turner, University of Birmingham (UK)

Cardiopathy and post-infarction imaging,
Loïc Bière, University of Angers (FR)

Friday 6th July

Arterial remodeling,

Marie Briet, University of Angers (FR)

Vessels are under neural control,

Bérangère Fromy, University of Lyon (FR)

Resistance artery,

Daniel Henrion, University of Angers (FR)

Closing ceremony

Saturday 7th July

Day-trip to the Atlantic seacoast with all the participants

The night between Saturday and Sunday (in Angers) is included in the fees.

Sunday 8th July

Departure of the participants